Dear Mr. Slevin:

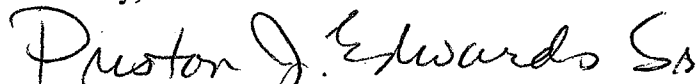

I am pleased to inform you that Walgreens was ranked No. 2 on the list of The Top 100 Employers of the Class of 2008. In recognition of this distinction, we are presenting you with the Top 100 Employers Certificate.

The Top 100 Employers List is based upon our annual survey of the hiring projections of America's largest employers. It is published in THE BLACK COLLEGIAN Magazine and on THE BLACK COLLEGIAN Online (www.black-collegian.com), and it is reprinted by Career Services offices on college and university campuses across America. I have enclosed your Top 100 Employers Certificate along with the press release and a copy of the February '08 issue of THE BLACK COLLEGIAN. Feel free to modify and send the press release to your networks or media contacts. We have also created an online section (www.black-collegian.com/top100) of immediately downloadable materials your organization can customize and use to promote your position as a 2008 Top Employer -- including electronic copies of the press release, Top 100 Employers Rankings in PDF format, and Web award button graphics.

As a way of saying "thank you" for participating in this year's survey, we have emailed you an invitation to be featured in our complimentary 2008 Top Employers Pre-Graduation Virtual Career Fair from March 15 to April 25. If you would like to promote information about any college hiring or internship openings you still want to fill for the season, please submit your link details through our brief online form (www.black-collegian.com/top100/registration.htm) as soon as possible, before March 15. There is no charge for participating in this Career Fair.

Again, thank you and congratulations on making the list of The Top 100 Employers for the Class of 2008.

Sincerely,

Preston J. Edwards, Sr.
